History of Padang Lawas 2 2015-02-05

for the last century and a half the name of padang lawas in the present province of north sumatra indonesia has been associated with a number of isolated hindu buddhist remains located in the interior of the island these remains are all the more remarkable because they form the largest indianised archaeological complex known so far in the northern half of sumatra this book follows the recently published volume on archaeological researches conducted at the si pamutung site from 2006 until 2010 its two main purposes are rstly to present and reappraise all the available sources for the ancient history of the region and secondly to provide an initial synthesis of the history of padang lawas between the mid ninth and the end of the thirteenth century ce as no comprehensive inventory of sculptures and other artefacts reported since the mid nineteenth century had been published the rst chapter attempts to ll this gap by providing descriptions of z64 items lt is followed by four systematic studies on dozens of these items whether stone or bronze artefacts furthermore the thirteen ancient inscriptions from padang lawas are systematically reinvestigated or are deciphered for the rst time to this epigraphic study is associated a historical study on the indigenous writing system two chapters present on the one hand the main results of recent archaeological research conducted in two other sites of the barumun river basin and on the other a panorama of archaeological data on the mandailing natal region situated west of padang lawas in order to get a comprehensive and updated overview of the knowledge currently available of the area between both coasts of this part of sumatra in addition the epigraphic study on padang lawas is supplemented with a reappraisal of inscriptions from mt sorik merapi in this mandailing natal region and inscriptions from the site of muara takus on the banks of the upper reaches of the kampar river

AUSTRONESIAN DIASPORA 2021-01-28

this book is a proceeding from a number of papers presented in the international symposium on austronesian diaspora on 18th to 23rd july 2016 at nusa dua bali which was held by the national research centre of archaeology in cooperation with the directorate of cultural heritage and museums the symposium is the second event with regard to the austronesian studies since the first symposium held eleven years ago by the indonesian institute of sciences in cooperation with the international centre for prehistoric and austronesia study icpas in solo on 28th june to 1st july 2005 with a theme of the dispersal of the austronesian and the ethno geneses of people in the indonesia archipelago that was attended by experts from eleven countries the studies on austronesia are very interesting to discuss because austronesia is a language family which covers about 1200 languages spoken by populations that inhabit more than half the globe from madagascar in the west to easter island pacific area in the east and from taiwan micronesia in the north to new zealand in the south austronesia is a language family which dispersed before the western colonization in many places in the world the austronesian dispersal in very vast islands area is a huge phenomenon in the history of humankind groups of austronesian speaking people had emerged in ca 7000 6000 bp in taiwan before they migrated in 5000 bp to many places in the world bringing with them the neolithic culture characterized by sedentary agricultural societies with animal domestication the austronesian speaking people are distinguished by southern mongoloid race which had the ability to adapt to various types of natural environment that enabled them to develop through space and time the varied geographic environment where they lived as well as intensive interactions with the outside world had created cultural diversities the population of the austronesian speakers is more than 380 million people and the indonesian archipelago is where most of them develop indonesia also holds a key position in understanding the austronesians for this reason the austronesian studies are crucial in the attempt to understand the indonesian societies in relation to their current cultural roots history and ethno genesis this book discusses six sessions in the symposium the first session is the prologue the second is the keynote paper which is austronesia an overview the third is diaspora and inter regional connection the fourth is regional highlight the fifth is harimau cave research progress while the sixth session is the epilogue which is a synthesis of 37 papers we hope that this book will inspire more researchers to study austronesia a field of never ending research in indonesia

The Stardust Revolution 2022-02-15

in 1957 as americans obsessed over the launch of the soviet sputnik satellite another less noticed space based scientific revolution was taking off that year astrophysicists solved a centuries old quest for the origins of the elements from carbon to uranium the answer they found wasn t on earth but in the stars their research showed that we are literally stardust the year also marked the first conference that considered the origin of life on earth in an astrophysical context it was the marriage of two of the seemingly strangest bedfellows astronomy and biology and a turning point that award winning science author jacob berkowitz calls the stardust revolution in this captivating story of an exciting deeply personal new scientific revolution berkowitz weaves together the latest research results to reveal a dramatically different view of the twinkling night sky not as an alien frontier but as our cosmic birthplace reporting from the frontlines of discovery berkowitz uniquely captures how stardust scientists are probing the universe s physical structure but rather its biological nature evolutionary theory is entering the space age from the amazing discovery of cosmic clouds of life s chemical building blocks to the dramatic quest for an alien earth berkowitz expertly chronicles the most profound scientific search of our era to know not just if we are alone but how we are connected like opening a long hidden box of old family letters and diaries the stardust revolution offers us a new view of where we ve come from and brings to light our journey from stardust to thinking beings
